| | Approved For Release 2003/03/05 CIA-RIPB2-00457R004900440005-9 | Fr |
|---|--|----------|
| and a processor of the second | CLASSIFICATION_SECRET | |
| COUNTRY | Soviet Zone of GermanyREPORT NO | |
| TO: "Cs | Sahoanwolda Ainfield. 25) |   |
| | | |
| EVALUATION | PLACE OBTAINED. | 25 |
| | TENT 10 to 17 Yearsh 1950 | |
| DATE OBTAINE | | |
| REFERENCES_ | 25X1 | |
| | ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) | |
| REMARKS | RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY | |
| 1. 3 | there was flying with biplanes over the Schoenwalde (# 53/Z 66) | 25X1 |
| 1 | dirfield on 10 March 1950. No other aircraft were seen. | 25 25 |
| 2. C | Only two biplanes were parked in front of the closed hangars on .1 March 1955. They took off and landed at short intervals. | 25 |
| | | |
| f | on 17 March 1950 the airfield was observed from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in Front of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. | |
| f i | erved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in ront of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying | |
| s f i L s s c | erved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in ront of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. | |
| s f i L s s c | perved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in Front of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. Description(see also attached photograph): Low-wing monoplane, in-line engine, upper section painted grey-green and lower section light blue; two-man crew, seats in tandem fashion second man facing the rear; two rigid machine guns of about 15 mm saliber in right wing, one equal machine gun in left wing, all three equipped with mufflers and flash hiders; a cannon of 20 to 30 mm | |
| I I I | rerved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in Front of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. Description(see also attached photograph): Low-wing monoplane, in-line engine, upper section painted grey-green and lower section light blue; two-man crew, seats in tandem fashion second man facing the rear; two rigid machine guns of about 15 mm scaliber in right wing, one equal machine gun in left wing, all three scuipped with mufflers and flash hiders; a cannon of 20 to 30 mm scaliber firing through propeller hub. Comment: Comment: The reported occupation and a photograph taken at Schönwalde confirmations assumption that the airfield is occupied by a ground attack reported occupation and a photograph taken at Schönwalde confirmations assumption that the airfield is occupied by a ground attack reported occupation. The aircraft assigned to this regiment costly parked in the hangars. The photograph represents an L-10. | the pre- |
| I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I | rerved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in cront of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. Description(see also attached photograph): Low-wing monoplane, in-line engine, upper section painted gray-green and lower section light blue; two-man crew, seats in tandem fashion second man facing the rear; two rigid machine guns of about 15 mm saliber in right wing, one equal machine gun in left wing, all three equipped with mufflers and flash hiders; a cannon of 20 to 30 mm saliber firing through propeller hub. Comment: Comment: Comment: The reported occupation and a photograph taken at Schönwalde confirmations assumption that the airfield is occupied by a ground attack retent. A training regiment of the III lar Corps is also assumed to be stationed in Schoenwalde. The aircraft assigned to this regiment costly parked in the hangars. The photograph represents an L-10. Is hereby regraded to in accordance with the October 1978 from the October 197 | the pre- |
| This document CONFIDENTIAL letter of 16 Confident of the Archivist of the | rerved from its eastern edge. Forty-nine aircraft were counted in Front of the closed hangars. The planes circled the field flying individually and in elements of two. Description(see also attached photograph): Low-wing monoplane, in-line engine, upper section painted grey-green and lower section light blue; two-man crew, seats in tandem fashion second man facing the rear; two rigid machine guns of about 15 mm saliber in right wing, one equal machine gun in left wing, all three equipped with mufflers and flash hiders; a cannon of 20 to 30 mm saliber firing through propeller hub. Comment: The reported occupation and a photograph taken at Schönwalde confirmatious assumption that the airfield is occupied by a ground attack resent. A training regiment of the III lane Corps is also assumed to stationed in Schoemwalde. The aircraft assigned to this regiment costly parked in the hangars. The photograph represents an L-10. It is hereby regraded to in accordance with the control intelligence to the line unitelligence to the line United States. Date: 2008 | the pre- |